Position Description

TasNetworks | Powering a Bright Future

Content Developer – RTO Training

People	People Development

Objectives	- Content Developer- RTO training will support the end to end content design and development of all RTO Training and Assessment. - This role will oversee all the learning design to support to Training and Assessment to ensure a high quality of service to drive TasNetworks and meet regulatory requirements.
Role Specific Accountabilities	- Create engaging learning activities and compelling course content for both Face to Face & Online - Work collaboratively with subject matter experts to identify target audiences training needs - Apply instructional design methodologies, practices & theory - Work in partnership with the RTO Trainers - Create supporting material utilising a variety of mediums – eLearning, videos, role plays, activities etc. - Utilise the ADDIE Approach to develop the training that is informed by the experienced Trainers - Any other duty or task as reasonably and lawfully directed by TasNetworks

TasNetworks and you.

To be successful in this role	• To be successful in this role you will excel as an Content Developer with experience in lesson and curriculum planning and writing skill
	• Solid knowledge of course development software (Articulate) and at least one Learning Management System
	• RTO knowledge and experience including compliance and reporting essential.
	• Experienced with Student and Learning Management Systems preferable
	• You will be results focused with exceptional time management skills.
	• Positive team player with the ability to be agile to change

Reports to:	Direct reports:	Approved:
RTO Leader of Training	Nil	12 December 2022

Our behaviours be curious be brave own it